

WAR OF 1812 SOLDIERS FROM HARFORD COUNTY, MARYLAND

© 2014 by Henry C. Peden, Jr., M.A., Genealogist, Maryland Society of the War of 1812

- Note 1: * -- Asterisk after the name denotes a Defender of Baltimore City during the British attack in 1814; while only two known Harford Countians served at Fort McHenry, many participated in the Battle of North Point in 1814, served locally at Havre de Grace during the British raid on 3 May 1813, mustered at Annapolis, and camped near Baltimore at Hanson's Fishery and at Camp Hampstead Hill (now Patterson Park).
- Note 2: " -- Quotation mark indicates the information in that row (or line) also pertains to the soldier immediately preceding; every possible effort has been made not to confuse the data on those men who shared the same name.
- Note 3: Data gleaned from militia rolls, pension/bounty land files, censuses, newspapers, cemetery records, family histories. Some nicknames were given in the military records; some middle names were obtained from other sources.
